Geraint Edwards reported that he had attended a "Pîg yr Allt" meeting with Rev. L Ford and Mr J Haycock, to discuss two applications received from members of the community (Llwyngwriil).

It was decided at the meeting that these two applicants should receive £80.00 each towards educational activities.

It was suggested that "Pîg yr Allt" Committee should notify the community that financial contributions are available to young people in Llwyngwriil, for educational purposes, by submitting a formal application (by letter) to the "Pîg yr Allt" Committee, explaining what the money would be used for.
